Farewell & Anniversary Celebrations

Our parish community is invited to celebrate Father John's and Deacon Harold's 43rd Ordination Anniversary and to honor father John as he prepares to retire after twenty-three years of faithful service to Saint John Baptist de LaSalle Parish. This moment marks both a joyful milestone and a heartfelt farewell, offering a meaningful opportunity to express gratitude for his years of dedication and spiritual leadership.

Plans are underway for a special celebration to recognize Father John's lasting impact on our parish. With the help of our community, this event can become a truly memorable tribute to his ministry and service. All are welcome to take part in organizing this occasion as we come together in appreciation and unity.

To get involved in the planning, contact Temoc. Early participation will help ensure a well-prepared and fitting celebration for this important moment in the life of our parish.
